

Department Chair
Robert A. Bjork

The mission of the administrative staff in the UCLA Department of Psychology is to maintain a customer service driven organizational structure that supports and facilitates the teaching and research goals of the faculty and the educational objectives of students and scholars.

Department of Psychology
April 2008