

Charles & Sue Young Undergraduate Student Award

The Psychology Department is currently accepting applications for the Young Undergraduate Student Award. The winner of this award will receive $5,000 and will be honored at the annual College of Letters and Science Awards Dinner to be held in April 2008.

Qualifications:

- applicants must have achieved distinction in their studies
- applicants must demonstrate research progress and potential
- applicants must be active in University or community service
- applicants must be enrolled during the 2007-2008 academic year

Application Materials

- two letters of recommendation from UCLA Faculty members
- official academic transcript
- resume
- personal statement containing summary of research (1-2 pages in length)

Students MUST submit the above materials to the Psychology Undergraduate Advising Office, 1531 Franz, in care of Karina Gutierrez no later than January 11th.