ONLINE RESOURCES

Have you taken a look at the UCLA Psychology website recently? Many students do not know about the various resources found on the undergraduate page. Let us take a tour through the undergraduate section of our website, which can be found at the following link: <https://www.psych.ucla.edu/undergraduate>.

Although it may initially seem daunting, there are 8 separate headers with pull down menus for each section, located on the left hand side of the page, to help you navigate your search. Under the “Undergraduate Student Services” tab, you will find information on various topics including:

- Psychology, Psychobiology, and Cognitive Science Majors
- Applied Developmental Psychology and Cognitive Science Minors
- Psychology Major Application: for student who entered UCLA as freshmen
- Psychology Faculty/TA Office Hours
- Scholarships: achievement awards, research stipends, study abroad awards
- Graduate School & Careers

Students who are interested in receiving credit for psychology research or fieldwork can find listings of faculty members and organizations that are seeking research assistants and interns respectively. This is a great place to start looking to gain research experience and hands on experience in psychology related fields. Don't see a particular lab or internship that interests you? If you find a psychology lab or a psychology-related internship that is not listed on our website, you may still be able to receive credit for research/fieldwork! Please contact us for more information.

Below the research and fieldwork tabs are other resources including the following:

- Special Programs and Events: PROPS, Departmental Honors, Psychology Undergraduate Research Conference (PURC)
- Student Organizations: Psi Chi, Undergraduate Research Journal of Psychology, Cognitive Science Student Association
- Student Opportunities: Conferences, Grad School Preparation, Student Groups

This is only a brief summary of the resources on the undergraduate psychology website. We hope that in between the midterm madness, you will be able to explore our website in depth to discover the plethora of resources available to spur on your

Please note that the Psychology Advising Office will be closed on Veteran's Day. Any enrollment inquires will be attended to the following Monday!
